Dear Families,

Wow! what a whirlwind of a week!

Thank you so much to everyone who visited our book Fayre! We totalled over £900 in books, which means we get 40% of this in books for the school. What a success! Thanks to Mrs Lovatt and all the staff for working so hard on this.

More good news is that Maggie the dog was found safe and sound. Thanks for all of our staff and parents for sharing posts and for your concern.

Don't forget the Valentine disco on Thursday, 3.30pm - 4.30pm infants and 5pm - 6 pm for juniors!

Have a lovely weekend,

Thank you,
Mrs L Dalton

ARRIVING LATE & ABSENCES

Please could I ask that any parents dropping off a child late at school to come into reception and sign their child in, as the teachers would have completed the registers by that time. Any late pupils also require a reason for lateness from the parent, otherwise it would be classed as unauthorised. Things seem to be improving - 4 late in today and breakfast club was full to the brim!

Attendance is so important in so many ways for the children and Flintshire are concerned with the number of absences that occur in schools. I meet with the Education Welfare Officer every 4 weeks and we discuss attendance of all pupils. Following this we send reminder letters out to parents. After the third letter this will be passed to County and they will begin issuing fines.

HIGHLIGHTS THIS WEEK

Pupils were delighted to have been awarded the prestigious Arian (Silver) award for Cymraeg Campus last month.

Laura Randall, from the Flintshire Athrawon Bro Team, visited Ysgol Bryn Gwalia to present the award during a recent assembly.

Coordinated by Cerys Hughes, who leads Welsh across the school, the children play an integral part.

Pearson Award for Teaching Assistant of the Year, Jo Wyatt.

• The whole school has celebrated a special award win for TA, Jo Wyatt.

Jo won the prestigious Pearson Award for Teaching Assistant of the Year, presented to her by Gaby Roslin at an event in London.

Ysgol Bryn Gwalia pupils spreading the love on Dydd Santes Dwynwen.

• The school's youngest learners decided to spread love into the community last week on Dydd Santes Dwynwen, the day that is marked to celebrate love in Wales. The children gave gifts of love hearts to members of the community that passed the school.

BBC Morning Live filming at Ysgol Bryn Gwalia.

• Ysgol Bryn Gwalia appeared on the BBC's Morning Live last month to discuss the benefits of implementing KiVa as a whole school approach to preventing bullying.
